Last year's EAP winners were the Solana Center for Environmental Innovation and GoodOnYa Organic Deli; and they were awarded with the winners of the Artist selection: Tom O. Scott Photography and Artie Mattson, respectively (photos below).

2015 EAP WINNERS HOLDING THE WINNING ART PIECES

Artist Solicitation for the Encinitas Environmental Award Program

- This Art Commission is for 2 artists - to create an environmentally-themed piece of art to be presented to the EAP 2016 winners.
- The Art Piece must be an original piece no more than twelve inches in any dimension, substantial, durable, high-profile and able to be proudly displayed as a unique and notable piece.
- The Artist MUST include a sketch photo or description of the proposed Art Piece in their proposal.
- The commission amount is $500 per artist and will be the full compensation. Payment occurs when art is complete, delivered and accepted.

PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

- A. Candidates MUST be Encinitas residents. Validation will be by street address.
- B. The artwork can be two-dimensional or three-dimensional.
- C. The City of Encinitas will have all rights to use representations of the art in promotions and public information materials, and the artists will be credited. The EAP Award recipients will own the art.
- D. Art must not have been previously shown in public, at any public venue.

PROPOSAL – Due August 18, 2016

- Multiple submissions by a single artist are allowed, but two different artists will be selected.
- Your proposal must include on a separate sheet your name, address and contact information.
- Proposals also MUST include in writing and drawings 1) proposed materials and media, 2) a rendering of your proposed piece, 3) dimensions of the piece; and 4) how it responds to the Encinitas environmental-theme. Your text need not be typed, but it must be legible.
- You may optionally include your resume or CV - or your experience using the media proposed, and your history meeting deadlines on a separate sheet. However, extensive experience in art is not necessary – new or young artists are encouraged to propose.
- Submissions are limited to 3 pages, 8 ½" x 11" single sided sheets, which includes optional items and excludes separate sheet with contact information.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection criteria include but is not limited to:

- Completeness of submission (see proposal requirements above)
- Communication or depiction of the environmental-theme – inspirational, innovative
- Proposed media (materials/media must be permanent – not ephemeral)
- Suitability for display on wall or desktop (see size criteria above)
